

News from the Shrine of Saint Jude

Welcome

Welcome to the latest issue of Saint Jude Focus - updating the friends of Saint Jude on what is happening here in Faversham. This Focus is being written during one of the hottest days so far this year - luckily our office stays cool whatever the weather so we are managing - but not everyone has this luxury, please take care in this heat.

Thank you to all those who have supported our 'Footprints of Hope' initiative. If you want to add a brick to the 'Footprints of Hope', please send your form in as soon as you can.

Spread the Message

Saint Jude is a friend to each of us and is thus the patron saint of hope in Jesus Christ. No other saint has the same appeal: he knew Jesus and was one of his closest friends.

Now, we need your help to find more people to receive the newsletter via email or post and find out more about our friend, Jude.

Please can you help us to spread the knowledge of the Apostle Saint Jude and his Shrine? Can you ask friends and family to sign up to our quarterly newsletter either on email or via the post?

All are welcome – no-one is turned away - Jude is the saint of hope. Let's tell everyone and use the Shrine as a tool for spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. Thank you.

Old stamps, coins and much more

A reminder that we collect old stamps and coins at the Shrine - please send them to our address below. All the stamps and coins that we receive help us to raise money for the Shrine and the Carmelite Charitable Trust. Thank you.

"Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you."

Leave a gift in your will

Pentecost is always seen as the birth or beginning of the Church. The action of the Spirit is to create, to inspire, to bring life, to jolt, to stir up. The birth of the Church implies a new creative force in the world and a new perspective on reality. Saint Jude was part of this new creative force.

In 2022, thanks to friends of Saint Jude in the past, the Carmelite Order in Britain has been able to continue his work in spreading the Gospel. When you remember the Carmelite Charitable Trust in your Will, your faith touches lives for generations to come.

Please call us if you would like to find out more.
